Margaret had a son, Billy, when she married David. After his death, she remarried and the family lost touch with her.

David was a young person full of fun and energy. He loved motorcycles and anything mechanical at all. He was with the U S Geological Survey during the 1930's and joined the U S Army Air Corps in 1942. Because of a medical problem he was unable to fly, but was a ground crew chief and attained the rank of Staff Sergeant. He died in a motor bike accident, when on his way to work, he hit a pot hole and was thrown off the bike, with fatal head injuries.
